The attached is a registration form regarding the South Showcase Combine with five locations in the Southeast for the 2011 season. Players may choose more than one event to attend.

The events will showcase projected D1 players who will receive testing (40, vertical and broad jump) and training with one-on-one drills and competition. It is a media event for players and coaches exclusively for FOXSports/Scout.com. No testing at the April 10th camp. Players are eager to compete against the best across the region.

All players must complete a bio form which includes players in the classes of 2012, 2013, 2014. All players MUST pre-register in advance with limited availability (see registration page for instructions.)

Players should bring their 2010 season highlights clearly labeled, name, school, position if we do not already have them on a player's profile page.

Cost: $45.00
